FOLIOT http://mauriceboddy.org.uk/Foliot.htm#FOLIOT_BARONY

William Foliot married 1. (c.1115) --- (died c.1122); then 2. (before c.1123) Agnes, Lady of Appleton, (born c.1092, widow of 1. Herbert de St. Quentin, then of 2. Robert Faucomberge, and daughter of Osbern de Arches). William was the leading baron of the Honour of Pontefract (Yorks), and died at Catfofoss (1140).

Jordon I Foliot (born c.1116, eldest son of William & his 1st unnamed wife), married Beatrice. He died c.1177.

Jordon Foliot (born c.1138). This generation may not exist, as Jordon I could have married Beatrice quite late in life.

Richard Foliot (born c.1160), married Cecily Bardolf (born c.1160, daughter of Hugh, see below).

Jordon II Foliot (born c.1185) married Beatrice Bardolf (born c.1185, daughter of Hugh, and coheiress of her brother Robert, and thereby acquired

Sir Richard Foliot (born c.1214), of Norton, Fenwick, Grimston and Wellow, married Margery d'Estouteville (see below). Sir Richard died March 1299.

Sir Jordan III Foliot (born c.1248), of Elsing, East Lexham, Weasenham (Norfolk), also of Norton in Campsall Parish, Fenwick, Moseley, Cowesby (Yorks), also of Grimston, Wellow (Notts). He was also the heir of his uncle Robert, and thereby acquired (c.1275) Cowesby and Gressenhall. Jordan married (before 1283) Margery de Newmarche (born c.1244). He was created 1st Lord Foliot (1295), and died before May 1299.

Sir Richard Foliot (born 25th December 1283), of Gressenhall, became 2nd Lord Foliot (1299). He married Joan de Brewose, who had previously married 1. (c.1295) James de Bohun of Maddenstown, County Kildare, died May 1306. Richard died in Scotland (1317, before 23rd July), and Joan died before 1324.

Margery Foliot (born c.1307, daughter & coheir of Sir Richard) married Sir Hugh de Hastings